

Kirkeby Call

Weekly on Fridays

To be proclaimed in the market place. Feast of St Luke

1353

---

Small Addendum

*Cures; sores, spots, scrofula? Tom de Ha or John de Gow at Franks Ford will sort out your problems.

*Teeth pulled: See Watt of the market.

*Bone setting: Thursdays only at Christian Head.

*****

*Need a wailing recorder to accompany your beloved's funeral? See Meg de Gow

*Exotic Cloth and long-lasting candles supplied by Peter-bu-the Den

*Need help with your slaughtering? Jack or Ivor have the hatchets.

*Cauldrons, nails, arrowheads, horseshoes at the Forge.

*Materials for Plough-botes and hay-botes available from Little Adam of the Fair. No estovers available yet.

*Iron bound wheels for carts at John and Johns. Also axle repairs.

*****

*Cabbage soup to Ember tart; try the cooking at the New Forge.

*Get-you-home service: steady nagges and mares. Son of Thomas.

*****

*Son of Robin and Son of Steven will take your excess produce. (No more Damsons please).

*****

---

*For all your scrolling needs see the Wrighter

*****

*Potions and Lotions available from under the Green Tree

*Maledictions, Elixirs and other special dietary needs. Ask for Marion at Hagg's Nook

*Needles, thimbles and pretty drapery from Anna le Chapman

*Crusaders Castoffs; prepare for the Wars of the Roses! Rattan's stall.

*****

*Keep out the cold. Add our pepper, cummin and other eastern spices to your stew. Stay upright, drink our small ale. Alan del Rush.

*Honey, jellies and sweet-meats: See Jo and Xris in the market place.

Purveyors to the Cliffors.

*Home Baking, hot meals at the sign of the Bush. The De Lonsdale family-run business in the centre of the village.

*****

Manor News

Kirkby Mill operates daily except on Sundays and NO CORN may be milled anywhere else. No excuses allowed.

---

Next Boon Day on the demesne will be November 10th. Bring your own tools. Ale provided

By order, Alan steward to Roger de Clifford.

---

---