Topic: Kirkby Stephen Town Council, Informal 'virtual' Meeting of Councillors.

Time: Jun 10, 2021 06:45 PM London

The Town Council is not able to meet formally at the moment owing to the gap between legislation enabling video conferencing for local authorities ending and lockdown being eased. From May 17 only upto 6 people from any number of households may meet indoors.

At the Council's last meeting it was decided that the council would hold one or more virtual 'meetings of councillors' rather than meetings of the council to bridge the gap and stay in touch. These meetings will be accessible to the public and public participation is encouraged. Notes will be made.

No decisions can be taken by the council as this is not a council meeting but the Chairman/Clerk would be grateful for consensus & feedback that allows interim decisions to be made on a delegated basis and reported to the next meeting to be ratified.

Please will councillors let me know if they are unable to join?
